Project Planning:

Each individual must fill this out (even if you are in a group)!
If you did not plan a project, do the back side of this handout!

What are the components of my/our project? (such as: Slides, Video, Essay, Paragraphs, Lyrics, Scripts, Costumes, Ingredients, Poster Board, etc.)	Who do I see as being responsible for each component? Either put the individual's name, or you can say "all of us"

Other important notes:

What materials do we want Ms. Glentzer to provide? (Keep it reasonable, friends)!

How much time should we each commit to working on this project over the weekend?:

How much time should Ms. Glentzer provide for us to present on Wednesday, May 20th?:

Essay/Monologue Plan:

(DISREGARD THIS PAGE IF YOU ARE TURNING IN A PROJECT PLANNING OUTLINE)!

If you chose to write an essay on Romeo and Juliet, answer the following questions:

- I. What is the thesis of my essay? (Are you analyzing theme? motif? character motivation? or is it an argumentative essay)? Write out your “claim” as a complete sentence in which you mention the title and the author:

- II. What evidence will I use to support or argue my thesis/claim? (List three examples of something that happened in the play which proves your thesis statement can be backed up with examples from R&J).

III. Which two people will I share my essay with in order to share peer editing? (This is an important component of your project- you will lose a whole grade if you don't give two peer edits, and receive two peer edits)!

their name	their email address

You must also speak 5 lines of Romeo & Juliet. What is your Monologue Plan?:

IV. What 5 lines am I going to recite (or present by video) on Wednesday, May 20th?
Write out the Act, Scene and Lines below:

V. How will I memorize these lines over the next nine days? (Index cards? Practice in front of a mirror? Sing it in the shower? etc.)
